St. Louis Convention Decides By Unanimous Vote to Rush Matters Through as Rapidly as Possible.

Tremendous Ovation Given Bryan at the Conclusion of Senator James' Speech—Cries for Speech Were Insistent.

Buffalo Postmaster Drops Dead in Lobby of Hotel While Starting for Convention Hall.

Associated Press Dispatch.

Coliseum, St. Louis, June 15.—

With one demonstration after another today, the Democratic Convention registered its approval of President Wilson's conduct of foreign affairs, which has kept the country at peace.

When Permanent Chairman James mounted the diplomatic achievements of the President in negotiations with Germany, the convention launched into an eighteen minute roar of marching, cheering and waving of flags in which William Jennings Bryan, from his seat in the press section, joined.

There were calls for a speech from Bryan, but it was found he had slipped out while the demonstration was going on.

It was definitely stated that he would later address the convention.

The convention machinery was all ready to be thrown into high gear

as a report from the Rules Committee recommending that nominations be made tonight.

The convention adjourned at 1:22 o'clock until 9 o'clock tonight, the hour finally decided upon for balloting.

Associated Press Dispatch.

Coliseum, St. Louis, June 15.—By unanimous vote, the Democratic

Convention Rules Committee today

recommended that nominations for President and vice-president begin at 8 o'clock tonight.

The proposal was carried after an extended argument in its behalf by

Chairman William A. Glasgow, Jr.,

Pennsylvania.

Charles B. Strecker, of Massa-setts, opposed a change of the program, insisting that it was due to Louis business men, who had been the National Committee a sum of $100,000 for the convention, that delegates be kept there until tomorrow night.

While the Democratic National Convention was in its second session today, adopting a permanent organization and hearing the speech of Ollie James as permanent chairman, the platform makers were working with President Wilson's "own draft" and various suggested planks, hoping to have a complete draft of the platform ready for submission to the full Resolution Committee late this afternoon. After a three hour session today, members of the Democratic Convention Sub-Committee on Resolutions, which is drafting the platform, announced that a tentative draft would probably be completed late today for consideration by the entire committee.

Representative Rainey, of Illinois, and members of the sub-committee said that the tentative draft would contain a woman suffrage plank at least as strong as that contained in the Republican platform adopted in Chicago and expressing the belief of the Democratic party that women should be enfranchised.

Copies of the President's suggestions for the platform were given to each member.

The original draft, brought to St. Louis by Secretary Baker and turned over to Chairman Stone, was in the President's own handwriting.

Convention leaders let it be known immediately after the announcement of the sub-committee that they favored making nominations tonight, whether or not the platform was completed.

Administration officials at Washington were officially advised from St. Louis today that William Jennings Bryan had definitely decided to take the stump in support of President Wilson's re-election.

After the convention convened this morning and the formal program of prayer was carried out, Senator James was introduced as permanent chairman and addressed the convention.

At the conclusion of Senator James' speech the convention broke into a demonstration for William Jennings Bryan and the cries were insistent that he make a speech.

William S. Kasting, postmaster of Buffalo, N. Y., dropped dead at the Maryland Hotel today as he was leaving for the convention floor.

He was holding a proxy of Major Fuhrmann of Buffalo, delegate to the convention.

NOTE IS READY FOR CARRANZA

Secretary Lansing Lays Completed Draft Before President Wilson Today.

By Associated Press Dispatch. Washington, June 15.—Secretary Lansing laid before President Wilson today the complete draft of a note to General Carranza replying to the demands that American troops be withdrawn from Mexico.

Unless some new development forces the situation, the reply will not be sent until next week, as President Wilson and his advisers are anxious to deal with the note in such a fashion that action cannot be attributed to domestic politics.

As prepared by Secretary Lansing, it is understood the note flatly declines to withdraw American troops from Mexico until the de facto government has shown both willingness and ability to police the border states.

It is also said to make sharp rejoinder to suggestions of the Mexican communication which officials regard as discourteous and uncalled for.

Railroad Managers Reject Demands of Men for Shorter Hours and Overtime Increase—Strike Vote Expected.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, June 15.—Railroad managers today notified the heads of the four railroad brotherhoods, representing 350,000 railroaders of the United States, that they could not meet their demands for an eight-hour day and time-and-a-half for overtime.

They proposed arbitration as a solution of their difficulties, or submission of the dispute to the Interstate Commerce Commission.

This was the final answer given by the railroads to the men after two weeks of discussion in joint conference with the brotherhood heads, and probably means that a strike vote of the employees will be taken.

5 LOST
OF SHIP

Big Million Dollar Ship "Bear" Is Pounded to Pieces on Rocky Coast.

Fate of 196 Who Took to Life Boats Is Uncertain.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

EUREKA, CALIFORNIA, JUNE 15.—WITH FIVE FLOATING BODIES RECOVERED FROM THE WRECK OF THE ONE MILLION DOLLAR STEAMER BEAR IN A FOG ON SUGAR LOAF ROCK, NEAR CAPE MENDOCINO OFF THE CALIFORNIA COAST, SHORTLY BEFORE MIDNIGHT LAST NIGHT, THE FATE OF THE REMAINING 196 SOULS WHO TOOK TO THE LIFE BOATS AT MIDNIGHT WAS TODAY UNCERTAIN.

Barred from landing by the jutting rocks of the coast at this point, the 119 passengers and 82 members of the crew abandoned the steamer at midnight to drift in the fog while the ship battered to pieces on Sugar Loaf.

Before the steamer was abandoned S. O. S. wireless calls were sent out.

The battleship Oregon picked up the call while 25 miles away and dashed for the wreck.

Eureka, 15 miles away, got the call and the tugs Relief and Rescue put out at once. Other craft took up the rescue work at daybreak.

The scene of the wreck was still shrouded in dense fog this morning, but it was believed most of the life-boats would remain afloat due to calm that prevails.

One boat is reported to be trying for a landing on a rocky point within sight of Cape Mendocino lighthouse.

The tug Rescue picked up a part of the shipwrecked crew.

The Bear is showing signs of breaking up this morning.

The Bear was bound from Portland, Oregon, to San Francisco.

During the past 20 years a score of ships have piled up on Sugar Loaf and many lives have been lost at the point.

Miss Adams was in the third boat which also upset. Most of the thirty occupants of her boat have been rescued.

Position North of Souville Is the Object of Attack By Forces of Crown Prince.

(Associated Press Cable)

Paris, June 15.—The Germans are continuing the violent bombardment of French positions north of Souville, the key to the inner defenses of Verdun, according to the official French War Office statement.

INTENSE EFFORT

Intense artillery activity is reported on both banks of the Meuse.

The Germans are directing a heavy fire on Fort Souville, whose guns have lent powerful aid in balking the efforts of the Teutons.

In their offensive on the eastern front, the Russians are making steady headway, although still some distance from Lemberg, their immediate main objective in Galicia.

Last reports place them just across the border, some 50 miles north of the city of Kival, the railroad junction which links the German and Austrian forces on this front.

In Bukowina, Czernowitz, the capital, apparently is cut off in all directions, but the south.

The fight took place on the American side of the border, the Americans engaged according to the report, being Troops I and M of the Fourteenth Cavalry, under Major Gray, a total of about 140 men. The bandits numbered more than 100.

BANNERS WILL BE AWARDED BEST TOWNS

Sixteen towns on the Coit-Alber Chautauqua circuit will win handsome banners this year. These will be awarded to the towns attaining front rank in the Junior Chautauquas. Naturally, the boys and girls of this city should be interested in bringing one of these banners here.

Among the points which will count in favor of winning these prizes is the percentage of boys and girls who earn their own money to buy their Junior ticket, which costs one dollar and admits, in addition to all sessions of the Junior chautauqua, to all sessions of the Senior chautauqua as well. The other points will be announced at the opening of the chautauqua and all of them have to do with the work of the week. The earning of money to buy the ticket is one thing which can be done before the chautauqua comes, and now is a good time for boys and girls to get busy.

DIXIE HIGHWAY MAY BE OPENED THIS FALL

Judge M. M. Allison, president of the Dixie Highway Association, plans to take a trip this month in the interests of the high way to Knoxville, through the Cumberland Gap and into Kentucky.

The division to be visited by Judge Allison already has the money in hand to build its section of the road. The mountain counties of Knox, Laurel and Rockcastle are at work with steam shovels and other modern equipment.

Judge Allison will inspect their work and will endeavor to hasten the completion of the road in order to be able to announce its opening in the fall.

The Firefly's Glow

While a little behind schedule time and not appearing in the numbers with which the yearly rush is made, the "fireflys" or "lightning bugs" are with us once more.

There is nothing more beautiful during the forepart of an ordinary June night than to see the myriads of fireflys flashing over wheat fields and meadows.

This year in this section of the country there are comparatively few of the heavy wheat fields and there is an absence, too, of the usual warm June nights and to that extent at least nature has failed to arrange properly the stage settings for the appearance of the little insects.

The firefly is one of our oldest acquaintances and friends, one of the first in fact most of us ever had in the big world outside of the immediate family circle.

The firefly is the first to attract the wondering and wandering gaze of the infant, the first of nature's live creatures which attracts the "toddler" from the door-step out across the lawn in pursuit. The firefly is the first captive to be taken by the militant male child, with his inborn instinct for conquest, the first prisoner to be confined in a glass bottle and about the only one of the insect world that "even a girl" isn't afraid of.

All through life that romance of the firefly, that attraction it holds for the children, endures.

Tired out men and women of the cities enjoy a drive far afield to see the flashing of the fireflys on parade during the hot June evenings and tired workers on the farm can rest better when they see the fitful flashes of the fireflys across the fields of grain.

One of our old friends, one of the encouraging creatures of nature, has come again and in the pleasure of the moment, the sight of his cheery light carries us back to the time when we had no troubles and we forgot the present.

Jean Webster Is Dead

The literary world and the theatrical world is paying tribute to the memory of Jean Webster, who died in New York City Sunday evening.

Jean Webster was the wife of Glenn Ford McKinney, a New York lawyer and is best known as the author of "Daddy Longlegs," a story for young folks and which, when dramatized gave to the stage and to the theater loving public one of the most enjoyable, most popular, most profitable and wholesomely clean plays of the decade.

"Daddy Longlegs," coming as it did at a time when the public was surfeited with plots and plays decidedly risque, gained instantly a deserved popularity and did much to turn the dangerous drift of plays from channels which threatened the popularity, if not the very existence of the stage.

Jean Webster has written a number of good wholesome stories—each one of them carrying its moral lesson and each full of human impulse and true to the experience of human beings, none of them prosey or preachy, and all of them enthralling, but her fame was assured when she gave to the world the beautiful story of "Daddy Longlegs."

The theater owes much to the memory of Jean Webster, but the public owes more. While the author may be forgotten in a few years, and while even now mention of the name of Jean Webster fails, with many, to call to mind the splendid work of this good wife and mother the mention of "Daddy Longlegs" will for generations to come, carry its enchanting lesson of morality.

A Personal Wish

In Van Wert county—way up in the northwest corner of the state, along the Indiana line, one of those three Ohio counties, the names of which we never forget, because they are named after those revolutionary soldiers, Paulding, Van Wert and Williams, who captured Major Andre—the voters are going to have a primary election in August.

Well, there is nothing unusual about that because every county in Ohio is going to have just the same kind of an upheaval at that time.

Sometimes our personal feelings will get the better of us and willing to pay the penalty of being charged with writing about something that has no local interest, we are going to assert down here in Fayette county that the people up in Van Wert county should elect Mr. Marker probate judge.

His record of public service in state departments proves him a man of unusual ability and strict integrity. His private life guarantees that, if elected, he will be a real probate judge, administering the laws with justice to all.

Maybe our old friend "Bill" will find out that we wish him well and if our advocacy of his candidacy will do him any good he has it.

Mr. Marker is deserving of success and he is the kind of man the people want in public service.

Now these few words wishing well to an old friend may not do him any particular good. They can't do any harm and as the space is the sole cost, our first apology for this "outbreak" will not be supplemented.

Poetry For Today

A GREAT MAN.

Oh, it's not the fame and it's not the game
That makesaman so great.
And it's not the wealth and it's not the pelf
And it's not the works of fate.
It isn't the brain and it isn't the gain
And it isn't the friends you make,
But it's courage to try and that "do it or die".
That wins you the chance you take.

It's the fighting a fight with all of your might
When you know that the fight is fair.

It's learning to wait without envy or hate—

And it's learning to do and dare,
It's knowing you've slipped and knowing you're whipped

And the courage to try again;
It's the nerve to compete when you're facing defeat

That wins you a place among men

It's beating out fate that makes a man great—

But that doesn't make a great man.

But it's facing you're foes and taking their blows

And still helping them all you can

A difference lies in the fellow that tries

And the one who won't try at all,

For the one gathers fame and truly great name

And swift is the other one's fall.

The man who is great has his own special rate

And he conquers all that he can.

He's noble and strong and we'll honor him long

As we honor a truly great man.

The man who is great learns to love and to hate

And his life and his fortunes are blest

And he's noble and strong and we'll honor him long

But we all like the great man the best.

—Jerrold G. Kennedy.

MAY COMPROMISE B. & O. CASE AT MEETING TONIGHT

At the adjourned session of the city council, to be held at 7:30 o'clock tonight, a number of important matters of business are expected to come up for attention, including the police ordinance vetoed by Mayor Oster; the ordinance submitted by the Washington Gas & Electric Company for change in rates, and the request of the B. & O. railroad for permission to cross Hinde street with an additional track, tearing out two of the present tracks.

At the last meeting it was suggested that perhaps a compromise could be reached between the B. & O. and the city over the suit now pending for the opening of Pearl street, two squares east of North street, and that if a compromise could be reached, then the city could take up and grant the latest request of the road.

The case in question was to have come up in Common Pleas Court Thursday morning, but was postponed until after the council meeting tonight. The postponement is said to have been made at the request of attorneys for the B. & O. railroad, and it is expected that some agreement will be reached at the session tonight.

JURY DISMISSED UNTIL TOMORROW

The petit jury is having an easy time of it at the present term of court, and again was dismissed Thursday morning, until Friday morning, when the case of Ohio against Orin Benjamin will be tried.

The case to have come up Thursday morning was that of the City against the B. & O. on the opening of Pearl street.

DEVOE TIME TO JULY FOURTH PLANS

Following the weekly luncheon of the Dutch Treat Club Thursday the time was spent in discussing plans and hearing reports on plans for the July Fourth celebration, and at the conclusion of the conference it was announced that everything was of a most satisfactory nature.

Chairman Baer of the finance committee reported that the fund to be devoted to the celebration was nearing the $1,000 mark, and that his committee was still busy.

The matter of obtaining an airplane for a number of flights was taken up, and if a "bird man" is found who can offer a thrilling flight, he will be booked.

Daylight fireworks are being considered, and the purchasing committee, which goes to Dayton and Cincinnati Friday, may purchase a large supply of the daylight fireworks instead of arranging for an aeroplane.

Negotiations are on for Price's Premier Band, and it will be obtained if not already engaged for the day.

$500 or more will be expended for fireworks at night. This is $100 more than expended for the big display during the homecoming in 1910.

MANY CASES FOR THE GRAND JURY

When the grand jury convenes in special session, Monday of the coming week, quite a few cases will await their action. It is expected that they will finish their work in one day, and be permanently dismissed.

In addition to the case of Addie Bay Jones, who was indicted for shooting to kill Harry Sammons, and who may be re-indicted for murder, are the following cases:

Alton Porter, perjury. Elta Porter, perjury. D. R. McMahan, stealing corn. Frank Hickman, assault. Thomas McGath, obtaining money under false pretense. Samuel Fugate and Jennings Palmer, rape.

ADJUDGED INSANE SENT TO HOSPITAL

In Probate Court, Thursday morning, Mrs. C. W. Ferguson was adjudged insane and ordered committed to the State Hospital for the insane. She was taken to the hospital Thursday morning.

The woman is the one who figured in an assault case in Marion township Tuesday afternoon, and whose husband caused the arrest of the other party involved in the difficulty.

CRAP SHOOTERS EACH DRAW $8.95

Three colored boys, Harry and Ernest Evans and John Lowry, were picked up Thursday afternoon while indulging in shooting crap at the place where they were employed.

The trio faced Mayor Oster and entered pleas of guilty to the charge of rolling the bones, and drew $5 and the costs and promised to pay.

Mrs. Fred Wyman (nee Anna Conner) of Clyde Park, Montant, arrived this morning to spend the summer with her mother, Mrs. Frank Conner on Elm street.

The matter of obtaining an airplane for a number of flights was

HAD NO NUMBER AND DRAWS $25

Willard Wilson, colored, was placed under arrest Wednesday evening upon a charge of running an automobile without proper license tag, and upon his plea of guilty was fined $25 and the costs and stands committed to the workhouse until the fine is paid.

Wilson had been running a Ford machine about the city for sometime and the machine bore one license tag, with a "home-made" duplicate on the other end of the machine.

The matter came to the attention of the police and a little investigating disclosed that the license number carried by Wilson was one missing from a machine formerly owned by Dr. H. L. Stitt and sold by him to Troy T. Junk.

Wilson first claimed to have gotten the number from Columbus and said he had his license at home. He was told to produce the same, and started in custody of Chief Moore. However, he did not go far until he turned about and announced his willingness to plead guilty.

Upon his plea of guilty he was fined and, failing to have the price, was placed in jail to raise the money or go to the workhouse.

According to the authorities the machine is not owned by Wilson and it was further stated that recently he had borrowed $10 and gave a mortgage on the machine. This is being investigated.

MARK & VANGUNDY LAND CONTRACTS

Messrs. Mark & VanGundy were the successful bidders in both the road building contracts in this county, let at the State Highway Commissioner's office Thursday.

The contract for building 7.25 miles of bituminous macadam on the Wilmington pike was awarded at $57,445, and for the same kind of construction of 1.87 miles on the Hillsboro and Leesburg pike, $17,033.

Work begins within two weeks and both jobs are to be finished this season.

ANOTHER ARRESTED FOR NON-SUPPORT

Another man, one of a large number who have faced Probate Judge Allen for failure to support their minor children, was taken into custody Wednesday, when Alonso Smith was locked up on a non-support charge.

The accused man was to face Judge Allen Thursday afternoon, and was allowed to remain in jail pending his hearing.

W. R. C. DECORATION

A loving tribute was paid to the memory of those of their number who had "gone before," by the Woman's Relief Corps, on Wednesday afternoon. Some thirty members drove to the local cemetery and held an impressive service at the grave of Mrs. Mary Black, who had been the oldest member of the corps.

Thirty-four graves were decorated with beautiful flowers.

TONIGHT

In Social Circles

A perfect summer day, with blue overhead skies and the air redolent with June roses, combined with the patriotic inspiration of "Flag Day" to make the D. A. R.'s observance of it an event notable in the year's calendar.

Miss Rose McLean extended the hospitality of her home and the broad sweep of lawn, with large overhanging verandas, afforded most attractive settings for the outdoor party. Old Glory waved everywhere on the lawn and from the verandas, and bowls of roses completed the interior decorations.

On Flag Day the children of the Daughters are invited to participate and a specially pleasing feature of the afternoon's program was the introduction of the children in pretty drills and recitations.

As the guests arrived the children pinned on flags, kindly presented by the Elks, and seated them on the lawn in front of the rear veranda, converted into a stage for the afternoon's performance.

The Regent, Mrs. Frank M. Kennedy, conducted a short business session before the D. A. R. chorus, directed by Mrs. Eliza Waddell, sang "America" as the opening number.

Mrs. Kennedy gave a short and instructive talk on "The deplorable ignorance of the People in regard to the laws concerning the national flag," and Mrs. W. B. Woodward, chairman of the Department of Patriotic Education, read the state laws concerning the desecration of the flag.

The story of the flag was given by Helen Durant and Mrs. Kennedy, as Regent, gave a most interesting talk on Ohio and her flag, illustrated by an excellent drawing.

The remainder of the program was given by the children.

Taking part in a cunning flag drill of tiny tots were Wilhelmina Sprenger, Jean Michaels, Helen Louise Jackson, Francis Marion Kennedy, Thomas Craig, Robert Parrett. Five little girls, Elizabeth Sprenger, Mary and Jane Durant, Dorothy Parrett, Mildred Todhunter, sang the "Flag Song" splendidly and two small boys, Thomas Craig and Robert Parrett, were very cute in a recitation, "Our Flag." Francis Marion Kennedy told of "Flag Day" with stirring patriotism that delighted the guests and Dorothy Parrett recited prettily, "Ballad of the Sweet Pea." Billy McFadden gave a bright little recitation.

The program closed with a beautiful flag drill by twelve girls, with Francis Marion Kennedy carrying a huge flag as advance guard.

The girls in the drill were: Mary and Jane Durant, Elizabeth Sprenger, Mildred Todhunter, Mary Elizabeth Brown, Ruth Tanquary, Mary Brownell, Portia Brownell, Anna Lee McFadden, Roma Brownell, Ruth Jamison, Elizabeth Brownell.

As it was "children's day," the Daughters departed from the usual and served ice cream cones in bountiful supply, to the special approval of the small guests.

Miss Pauline Pine trained the children in the drills and Miss Helen Jones played the accompaniments.

Mrs. Emmit McLean, of Greenfield, Miss Helen Hoskins of Columbus, and Mrs. Simmons, a Chapter member from Greenfield, were out of town guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rothrock have received the announcement of the marriage of their son, Mr. Vernon Rothrock, and Miss Lenora Broadway Becker at the home of the bride in Toledo, on the second of June.

Mr. Rothrock brings his bride to the home of his parents in this city Friday for a visit and will find awaiting him the best wishes of his many Washington friends.

For some time Mr. Rothrock has been traveling salesman with the large wholesale grocery firm of Berdan & Company, of Toledo, making headquarters in Dayton, where the home of the young couple will probably be made.

Twenty couples of the younger set were very pleasantly entertained at the Frank M. Fullerton home last night with an informal reception, given by Miss Dorothy Fullerton in compliment to her house guests, three attractive Wells College friends, Miss Charlotte Flindt, of Spencer, Iowa; Miss Dorothy Land of Richmond, Ind., and Miss Esther Dahl of Duluth, Minn.

The home was a beautiful bower of June roses and greenery.

The originality of the hostess was shown in her plans for the entertainment of the guests. Professor Thomas, of Kansas City, Mo., located at present in the city and a complete master of the art of palmistry, gave several demonstrations of his wonderful mind reading and powers of suggestion, after which he read the palms and revealed the futures of all the guests. Other diversions had been provided, but it was hard to tear the guests away from the absorbing interest of the palmist.

A delicious luncheon of chicken salad, nut and patti de foigras sandwiches, mint sherbet and chocolate-covered marshmallows was served, Miss Fullerton's mother, Mrs. Frank M. Fullerton; sister, Miss Margaret, and Mrs. John Galvin of Wilmington, assisting.

The guests were received by Miss Dorothy and her house guests. Miss Fullerton was looking extremely pretty in pale blue and white net; Miss Dahl was attractive in white net embroidered with silver; red satin and chiffon were quite becoming to Miss Flindt, a beautiful blonde; and Miss Land, brunette type, was charming in black net.

Other out-of-town guests were Miss Mala Manners of Frenchtown, N. J., and Mr. Patterson, of Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. G. C. Kidner charmingly entertained the Tuesday Kensington club on Thursday afternoon. Summer flowers were in artistic arrangement and tempting refreshments served.

Mrs. A. J. Burgett assisted.

Complimenting Mr. Hugh Kennedy, who leaves in a few days for the East, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Peddicord gave an informal, but thoroughly pleasurable little dinner of six covers Wednesday evening. The additional guests were Misses Helen Jones and Emily Tansey, Mr. Carl Reed.

Miss Vada Brakefield delightfully entertained the young ladies' class of the Staunton M. E. Sunday school with a Kensington, Thursday afternoon.

Quantities of summer flowers adorned the hospitable summer home and a refreshing summer luncheon served.

A jolly party picnicking at Rock Mills Thursday was composed of Miss Dorothy Fullerton and guests Misses Esther Dahl of Duluth, Minn., Miss Dorothy Land of Richmond, Ind., Miss Charlotte Flindt of Spencer, Iowa, Miss Lillian Davis and guest Miss Mala Manners of Frenchtown, N. J.; Messrs. Chas. Clough and Madruder of Columbus, Messrs. Kenneth Kerr of Wilmington, Edwards Hopkins, Virgil Perrill and Patterson.

The June meeting of the Home Missionary Society of Grace church was held in the parlors of the church Wednesday afternoon, with the afternoon's hostesses Mesdames J. W. Hughey, Stuckey, Noble, Girard, James Hays, Tysor, Misses Light and Edith Gardner.

The annual election of officers was held, resulting as follows:

President, Mrs. H. W. Wills; 1st Vice President, Mrs. W. E. Ireland; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. F. G. Carpenter; 3rd Vice President, Mrs. S. J. Sollars; Treasurer, Mrs. Wm. Dial; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Lucy Hays; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Wm. McClain; Secretary of Literature, Mrs. Frank Christopher; Secretary of Mite Boxes, Mrs. Wert Briggs.

Mrs. W. E. Ireland gave a reading and Miss Gardner favored the society with a vocal solo, after which the guests were invited to the basement dining room for refreshments and an enjoyable social hour.

Never was a social event carried out to more successful completion than that of the social session of the Rebekahs held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Riley and daughter Miss Luella, Wednesday evening.

By the untiring efforts of the committee nothing had been left undone to complete the evening's entertainment. The beautiful lawn and scenery thrown into relief by electric lights, created picturesque surroundings.

At seven o'clock autos began to arrive and soon everyone was enjoying the old time see-saw, swings, and croquet, and the Edison phonograph furnished sweet music throughout the evening.

Delicious refreshments were served consisting of strawberry shortcake and whipped cream, after which guests were invited to the punch bowl to quench their thirst.

About 125 Rebekahs were present all expressing their intention to be Rebekahs at least another year and regretting to leave the evening's entertainment.

The platform at the B. & O. station was again showered with rice this morning when Mr. and Mrs.

Roland Allen (nee Miss Emily Fullerton) of Greenfield left on the 10:42 B. & O. train for Columbus.

The wedding took place at 8 a.m. at the bride's home in Greenfield and the young couple made a flying trip by automobile to this city, followed by a score of their immediate friends who did their best to make life miserable for the otherwise happy pair until their train arrived.

The bride and bride-groom are both well known in Washington. Among the bridal party were the Misses Laura Douglas, Irma Oxley, Amelia Ashling and Messrs. Slagle, Everhart and Howard Allen who have many friends in this city.

The Charlotte Tuttle Bible class thoroughly enjoyed the semi-monthly meeting of Wednesday evening with Mrs. Tuttle.

A feature which added novelty and pleasure was a birthday surprise tendered to Mrs. Regina Staunton, of the class. A beautiful birthday cake with pink candles was brought in and while a dainty summer collation was enjoyed Mrs. Staunton taken completely by surprise, was merrily toasted.

Maynard and Harold Craig returned from Delaware, Thursday evening, having graduated from the Ohio Wesleyan University. Their names deserve a place on the list of Washington Court House boys who have distinguished themselves in the various colleges throughout the state. However, with their many activities in college, they have not neglected scholarship which is, after all, the real criterion for those who have made good. Mr. Harold Craig took first honors in scholarship in the Beta Theta Pi fraternity, during his senior year, and also treasurer of the Senior class.

Candidate Hughes Described as the "Political Representative of Pro-German Influence" In a Plank an Element of the Democratic Party Would Insert in the Platform—Developments of the Day.

St. Louis, June 15.—An influential element in the Democratic party is determined, if possible, to procure the adoption of a declaration in the Democratic platform describing Charles E. Hughes, the Republican nominee, as the political representative of pro-German influence in the United States. Those who would have Mr. Hughes so attacked are Senator Williams of Mississippi, Senator Husting of Wisconsin and Representative Glass of Virginia, all leaders of prominence in party affairs in Washington. It is known that the president is opposed to any direct personal attack of this character upon Mr. Hughes. He is likewise opposed to any declaration criticising the Republicans for having nominated a justice of the supreme court. Senator Stone of Missouri, chairman of the resolutions committee, is still insistent that the Democrats shall make some reference to the Republicans in "soiling the ermine" for political purposes. However, Mr. Stone, who has

There is no doubt now that Sullivan intends to allow his name to go before the convention. His supporters think that his strength may be a matter of some surprise. They contend that they have broken into the Texas and Tennessee delegations and, with rumbles being heard in New York, the Sullivan movement is regarded with interest. President Wilson's lieutenants can't believe, however, that there is any likelihood of the Sullivan strength becoming at all alarming.

ROOSEVELT ILL

(By American Press)

New York, June 15.—Colonel Roosevelt was taken ill in town and had to postpone his return to Oyster Bay. A coughing spell which he had on the way to the pier to meet Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Roosevelt, who came up from Panama, is believed to have loosened a muscle in his left side. The colonel had x-ray photographs taken of his side. The doctor says that his condition is not serious.

The examination disclosed a slight breaking of the muscles around the rib which was broken when he was thrown from a horse May 24, 1915.

St. Louis, June 15.—There was a big crowd on hand to witness the proceedings of the second session of the Democratic national convention which met in the Coliseum at noon today.

Temporary Chairman Glynn called the convention to order and Rev. J. J. Glennon, archbishop of St. Louis, offered prayer.

The first business before the delegates was the hearing of the several convention committee reports. The committee on permanent organization, in its report, presented the name of Senator Ollie M. James of Kentucky as permanent chairman of the convention. This report was adopted unanimously. Temporary Chairman Glynn then introduced Mr. James, who was accorded a flattering ovation. He responded by delivering an extended speech, in which he extolled the achievements of the Democratic administration. Reports of other committees were adopted without debate.

In his address as permanent chairman, Senator James praised the present administration for its "matchless record of promises kept and for freeing the senate from the control of the great interests by making it elective by the people at the polls and for driving invisible government, the lobby, out of Washington." He declared the party was proud of its achievement in writing into law the present Underwood-Simmons tariff bill. "Not a schedule in it fosters a monopoly; not a rate in it protects a trust," he said. "One of the greatest features of the tariff law," he added, "is the income tax, which raises from the fortunes of the rich, the prosperous, the well-to-do people of the nation, $120,000,000 per annum and lifts this burden off the tables and backs of the poor."

Doesn't Fear Competition.

Mr. James said he did not fear foreign competition here after the war. America is going to take the markets of the world, he asserted. With freight rates and cost of transportation in our favor, we have nothing to fear, declared the speaker.

The chairman declared that the federal reserve law had emancipated the credit of the nation. Panics no longer are possible, he said.

Discussing preparedness, he declared that democracy believes in preparedness without militarism. During this administration, he stated, more has been done to build up an army and navy in three years than the Republican party did in forty years of its existence. Self-defense and preparation for it is necessary, he declared.

Discussing international problems, Mr. James highly praised the administration's policy toward war torn Europe, and said in reference to the Lusitania incident that our president, "patient, patriotic, farsighted, the real statesman, handled this question with the greatest ability and won for America its greatest diplomatic victory."

Referring to the Mexican situation, Mr. James said President Wilson has handled it ably and that "his policy has been the same as that of Abraham Lincoln under like conditions more than half a century ago." He added: "When American soil was invaded the president quickly ordered the United States troops into Mexico upon their punitive expedition. They are there now and, I have no doubt, will remain as long as there is a possibility of the capture and punishment of the murderers who invaded American soil or are needed for the protection of American lives along the border."

Mr. James then attacked the Republican platform and its attitude on the ship subsidy question, criticised severely the Republican attitude on the rural credits and anti-trust propositions and closed with a glowing eulogy of President Wilson.

EAGLE ATTACKS SHEEP

(By American Press)

Kirkersville, O., June 15.—Farmers near Baltimore, south of here, in Fairfield county, are on the lookout for a big eagle which attacked a ewe and lamb on the farm of L. F. John of Kirkersville. The ewe attempted to defend the lamb and had both eyes clawed out, besides being badly lacerated about the body. A farmhand drove the eagle away and later killed the ewe to end its suffering. The lamb escaped.

COW CHARGES ON BABY.

Annoyed Because Child Was Wrapped In Red Blanket.

Philadelphia.—Mrs. Barbara Stoney went to Packingtown with her two small children. The baby was covered with a red blanket and was asleep in the carriage when an enraged cow, bellowing madly, charged.

Mrs. Stoney ran, and the cow pursued her. The mother succeeded in getting the baby out of the carriage, but was knocked against the fence and badly bruised before crowd of men came and drove the cow away.

"Why Swear, Dear?
Use 'Gets-It' for Corns!"

It's the New Plan. Simple. Sure as Fate. Applied in a Few Seconds.

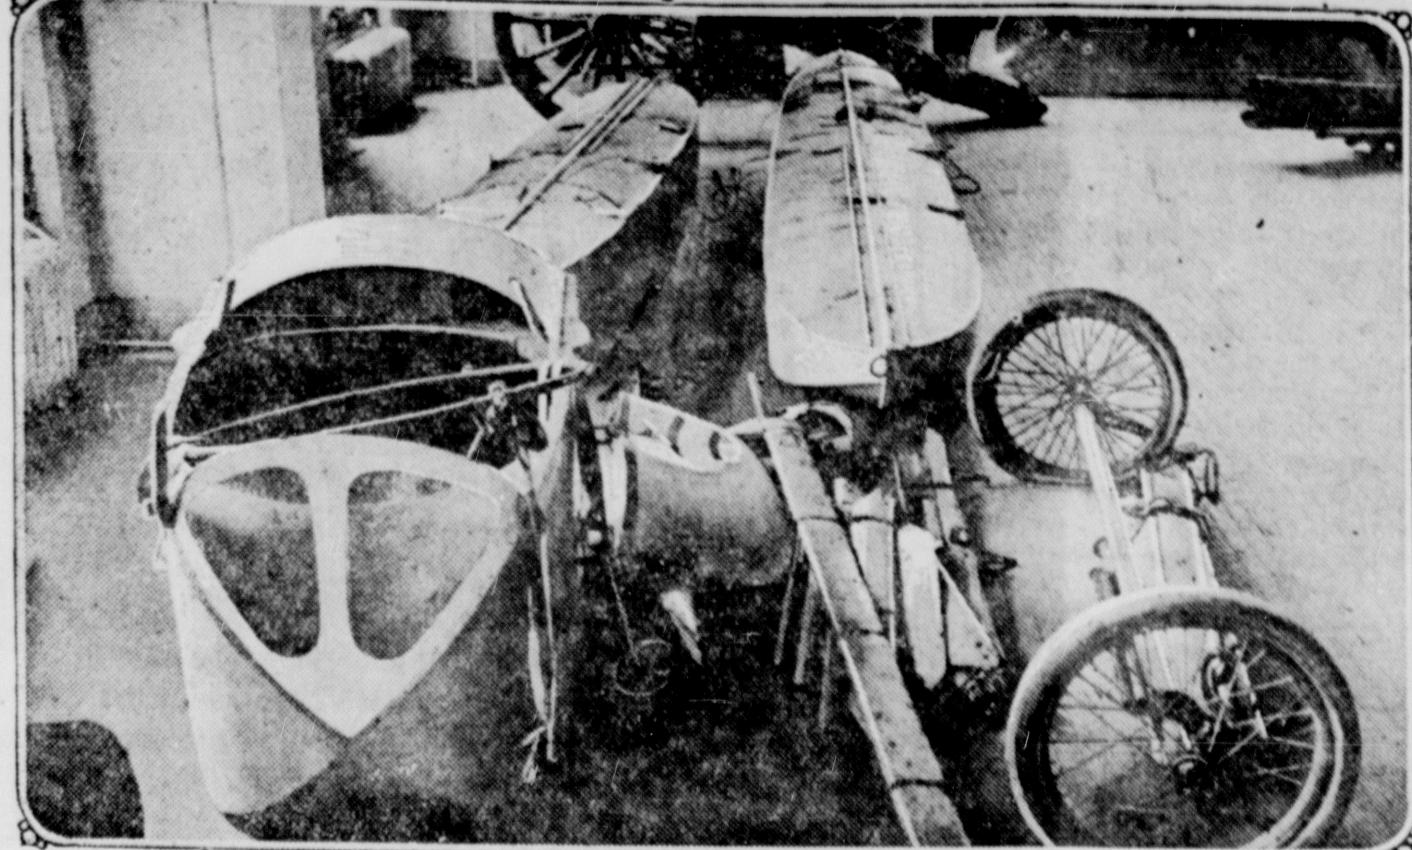

"Why, John, I never knew you to use such language! I've told you several times it's no use to try those bandages, salves, tapes, plasters, and contraptions for corns. Here's some 'Gets-It'—it's just wonderful how easy, 'clear and clean' it makes any corn come right off. Takes but a few seconds to apply. It dries at once. Put your sock on right over it—there's nothing to stick or roll up; form a bundle of your toe, or press on the corn. It's painless, simple as rolling an log. Now put away those knives, razors and scissors, use 'Gets-It' and you'll have a sweater disposition and no more corns and calluses."

"'Gets-It' is sold by druggists everywhere, 25¢, a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill.

Sold in Washington C. H., and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Browns', Christophers' and Blackmer & Tanquary's Drug Stores.

The fighting around Verdun, France, has been the severest in history. Relics of the battle have been put on exhibition at the allied bazaar in New York. WELL SPOKEN

(By American Press)

Washington, June 15.—A charge that foreign-born citizens of the United States are trying to levy political blackmail and to undermine the influence of the national government was made by President Wilson in a speech here. He declared that not since the civil war had it been tested as it now is being tested whether the Stars and Stripes stood for any one united purpose. "There is disloyalty active in the country," he said. "There is a desire to make us believe that we are not a nation, but a collection of states."

METHODISTS AND Y IN A TIE GAME

Associated Press Dispatch.

Coliseum, St. Louis, June 15.—With one demonstration after another today, the Democratic Convention registered its approval of President Wilson's conduct of foreign affairs, which has kept the country at peace.

When Permanent Chairman James mounted the diplomatic achievements of the President in negotiations with Germany, the convention burst into an eighteen minute roar of marching, cheering and waving of flags in which William Jennings Bryan, from his seat in the press section, joined.

There were calls for a speech from Bryan, but it was found he had slipped out while the demonstration was going on.

It was definitely stated that he would later address the convention. The convention machinery was all ready to be thrown into high gear by a report from the Rules Committee recommending that nominations be made tonight.

The convention adjourned at 1:22 o'clock until 9 o'clock tonight, the hour finally decided upon for balloting.

Associated Press Dispatch.

Coliseum, St. Louis, June 15.—By unanimous vote, the Democratic Convention Rules Committee today recommended that nominations for president and vice-president begin at 9 o'clock tonight.

The proposal was carried after an extended argument in its behalf by Chairman William A. Glasgow, Jr., Pennsylvania.

Charles B. Strecker, of Massachusetts, opposed a change of the program, insisting that it was due to Louis business men, who had given the National Committee a sum of $100,000 for the convention, that delegates be kept there till tomorrow night.

While the Democratic National Convention was in its second session today, adopting a permanent organization and hearing the speech of Ollie James as permanent chairman, the platform makers were working with President Wilson's "own draft" and various suggested planks, hoping to have a complete draft of the platform ready for submission to the full Resolution Committee late this afternoon. After a three hour session today, members of the Democratic Convention Sub-Committee on Resolutions, which is drafting the platform, announced that a tentative draft would probably be completed late today for consideration by the entire committee.

Representative Rainey, of Illinois, and members of the sub-committee said that the tentative draft would contain a woman suffrage plank at least as strong as that contained in the Republican platform adopted in Chicago and expressing the belief of the Democratic party that women should be enfranchised.

Copies of the President's suggestions for the platform were given to each member.

The original draft, brought to St. Louis by Secretary Baker and turned over to Chairman Stone, was in the President's own handwriting.

Convention leaders let it be known immediately after the announcement of the sub-committee that they favored making nominations tonight, whether or not the platform was completed.

Administration officials at Washington were officially advised from St. Louis today that William Jennings Bryan had definitely decided to take the stump in support of President Wilson's re-election.

After the convention convened this morning and the formal program of prayer was carried out, Senator James was introduced as permanent chairman and addressed the convention.

At the conclusion of Senator James' speech the convention broke into a demonstration for William Jennings Bryan and the cries were insistent that he make a speech.

William S. Kasting, postmaster of Buffalo, N. Y., dropped dead at the Maryland Hotel today as he was leaving for the convention floor.

He was holding a proxy of Mayor Fuhrmann of Buffalo, delegate to the convention.

NOTE IS READY FOR CARRANZA

Secretary Lansing Lays Completed Draft Before President Wilson Today.

Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, June 15.—Secretary Lansing laid before President Wilson today the complete draft of a note to General Carranza replying to the demands that American troops be withdrawn from Mexico.

Unless some new development forces the situation, the reply will not be sent until next week, as President Wilson and his advisers are anxious to deal with the note in such a fashion that action cannot be attributed to domestic politics.

As prepared by Secretary Lansing, it is understood the note flatly declines to withdraw American troops from Mexico until the de facto government has shown both willingness and ability to police the border states.

It is also said to make sharp rejoinder to suggestions of the Mexican communication which officials regard as discourteous and uncalled for.

Railroad Managers Reject Demands of Men for Shorter Hours and Overtime Increase—Strike Vote Expected.

Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, June 15.—Railroad managers today notified the heads of the four railroad brotherhoods, representing 350,000 railroaders of the United States, that they could not meet their demands for an eight-hour day and time-and-a-half for overtime.

They proposed arbitration as a solution of their difficulties, or submission of the dispute to the Interstate Commerce Commission.

This was the final answer given by the railroads to the men after two weeks of discussion in joint conference with the brotherhood heads, and probably means that a strike vote of the employees will be taken.

5 LOST WRECK OF SHIP

Big Million Dollar Ship "Bear" Is Pounded to Pieces on Rocky Coast.

Fate of 196 Who Took to Life Boats Is Uncertain.

Associated Press Dispatch.

EUREKA, CALIFORNIA, JUNE 15.—WITH FIVE FLOATING BODIES RECOVERED FROM THE WRECK OF THE ONE MILLION DOLLAR STEAMER BEAR IN A FOG ON SUGAR LOAF ROCK, NEAR CAPE MENDOCINO OFF THE CALIFORNIA COAST, SHORTLY BEFORE MIDNIGHT LAST NIGHT, THE FATE OF THE REMAINING 196 SOULS WHO TOOK TO THE LIFE BOATS AT MIDNIGHT WAS TODAY UNCERTAIN.

Barred from landing by the jutting rocks of the coast at this point, the 119 passengers and 82 members of the crew abandoned the steamer at midnight to drift in the fog while the ship battered to pieces on Sugar Loaf.

Before the steamer was abandoned S. O. S. wireless calls were sent out.

The battleship Oregon picked up the call while 25 miles away and dashed for the wreck.

Eureka, 15 miles away, got the call and the tugs Relief and Rescue put out at once. Other craft took up the rescue work at daybreak.

The scene of the wreck was still shrouded in dense fog this morning, but it was believed most of the life-boats would remain afloat due to calm that prevails.

One boat is reported to be trying for a landing on a rocky point within sight of Cape Mandocino lighthouse.

The tug Rescue picked up a part of the shipwrecked crew.

The Bear is showing signs of breaking up this morning.

The Bear was bound from Portland, Oregon, to San Francisco.

During the past 20 years a score of ships have piled up on Sugar Loaf and many lives have been lost at the point.

Paris, June 15.—The Germans are continuing the violent bombardment of French positions north of Souville, the key to the inner defenses of Verdun, according to the official French War Office statement.

INTENSE EFFORT

Intense artillery activity is reported on both banks of the Meuse.

The Germans are directing a heavy fire on Fort Souville, whose guns have lent powerful aid in balking the efforts of the Teutons.

In their offensive on the eastern front, the Russians are making steady headway, although still some distance from Lemberg, their immediate main objective in Galicia.

Last reports place them just across the border, some 50 miles north of the city of Kival, the railroad junction which links the German and Austrian forces on this front.

In Bukowina, Czernowitz, the capital, apparently is cut off in all directions, but the south.

BANNERS WILL BE AWARDED BEST TOWNS

Sixteen towns on the Coit-Alber Chautauqua circuit will win handsome banners this year. These will be awarded to the towns attaining front rank in the Junior Chautauqua.

Naturally, the boys and girls of this city should be interested in bringing one of these banners here.

Among the points which will count in favor of winning these prizes is the percentage of boys and girls who earn their own money to buy their Junior ticket, which costs but one dollar and admits, in addition to all sessions of the Junior chautauqua, to all sessions of the Senior chautauqua as well. The other points will be announced at the opening of the chautauqua, and all of them have to do with the work of the week. The earning of money to buy the ticket is one thing which can be done before the chautauqua comes, and now is a good time for boys and girls to get busy.

The Firefly's Glow

While a little behind schedule time and not appearing in the numbers with which the yearly rush is made, the "fireflies" or "lightning bugs" are with us once more.

There is nothing more beautiful during the forepart of an ordinary June night than to see the myriads of fireflies flashing over wheat fields and meadows.

This year in this section of the country there are comparatively few of the heavy wheat fields and there is an absence, too, of the usual warm June nights and to that extent at least nature has failed to arrange properly the stage settings for the appearance of the little insects.

The firefly is one of our oldest acquaintances and friends, one of the first in fact most of us ever had in the big world outside of the immediate family circle.

The firefly is the first to attract the wondering and wandering gaze of the infant, the first of nature's live creatures which attracts the "toddler" from the door-step out across the lawn in pursuit. The firefly is the first captive to be taken by the militant male child, with his inborn instinct for conquest, the first prisoner to be confined in a glass bottle and about the only one of the insect world that "even a girl" isn't afraid of.

All through life that romance of the firefly, that attraction it holds for the children, endures.

Tired out men and women of the cities enjoy a drive far afield to see the flashing of the fireflies on parade during the hot June evenings and tired workers on the farm can rest better when they see the fitful flashes of the fireflies across the fields of grain.

One of our old friends, one of the encouraging creatures of nature, has come again and in the pleasure of the moment, the sight of his cheery light carries us back to the time when we had no troubles and we forgot the present.

Jean Webster Is Dead

The literary world and the theatrical world is paying tribute to the memory of Jean Webster, who died in New York City Sunday evening.

Jean Webster was the wife of Glenn Ford McKinney, a New York lawyer and is best known as the author of "Daddy Longlegs," a story for young folks and which, when dramatized gave to the stage and to the theater loving public one of the most enjoyable, most popular, most profitable and wholesomely clean plays of the decade.

"Daddy Longlegs," coming as it did at a time when the public was surfeited with plots and plays decidedly risqué, gained instantly a deserved popularity and did much to turn the dangerous drift of plays from channels which threatened the popularity, if not the very existence of the stage.

Jean Webster has written a number of good wholesome stories—each one of them carrying its moral lesson and each full of human impulse and true to the experience of human beings, none of them prosy or preachy, and all of them entertaining, but her fame was assured when she gave to the world the beautiful story of "Daddy Longlegs."

The theater owes much to the memory of Jean Webster, but the public owes more. While the author may be forgotten in a few years, and while even now mention of the name of Jean Webster fails, with many, to call to mind the splendid work of this good wife and mother the mention of "Daddy Longlegs" will for generations to come, carry its enchanting lesson of morality.

A Personal Wish

In Van Wert county—way up in the northwest corner of the state, along the Indiana line, one of those three Ohio counties, the names of which we never forget, because they are named after those revolutionary soldiers, Paulding, Van Wert and Williams, who captured Major Andre—the voters are going to have a primary election in August.

Well, there is nothing unusual about that because every county in Ohio is going to have just the same kind of an upheaval at that time.

Sometimes our personal feelings will get the better of us and willing to pay the penalty of being charged with writing about something that has no local interest, we are going to assert down here in Fayette county that the people up in Van Wert county should elect Mr. Marker probate judge.

His record of public service in state departments proves him a man of unusual ability and strict integrity. His private life guarantees that, if elected, he will be a real probate judge, administering the laws with justice to all.

Maybe our old friend "Bill" will find out that we wish him well and if our advocacy of his candidacy will do him any good he has it.

Mr. Marker is deserving of success and he is the kind of man the people want in public service.

Now these few words wishing well to an old friend may not do him any particular good. They can't do any harm and as the space is the sole cost, our first apology for this "outbreak" will not be supplemented.

Poetry For Today

A GREAT MAN.

Oh, it's not the fame and it's not the game
That makesaman so great.
And it's not the wealth and it's not the pelf
And it's not the works of fate.
It isn't the brain and it isn't the gain
But it's courage to try and that "do it or die"
That wins you the chance you take.

It's the fighting a fight with all of your might
When you know that the fight is fair.
It's learning to wait without envy or hate—
And it's learning to do and dare.
It's knowing you've slipped and knowing you're whipped
And the courage to try again;
It's the nerve to compete when you're facing defeat
That wins you a place among men.

It's beating out fate that makes a man great—
But that doesn't make a great man.

But it's facing you're foes and taking their blows
And still helping them all you can
A difference lies in the fellow that tries
And the one who won't try at all.
For the one gathers fame and truly great name
And swift is the other one's fall.

The man who is great has his own special rate
And he conquers all that he can.
He's noble and strong and we'll honor him long

As we honor a truly great man,
The man who is great learns to love and to hate
And his life and his fortunes are blest

And he's noble and strong and we'll honor him long

But we all like the great man the best.

—Jerrold G. Kennedy.

In Social Circles

A perfect summer day, with blue overhead skies and the air redolent with June roses, combined with the patriotic inspiration of "Flag Day" to make the D. A. R.'s observance of it an event notable in the year's calendar.

Miss Rose McLean extended the hospitality of her home and the broad sweep of lawn, with large overlooking verandahs afforded most attractive settings for the outdoor party. Old Glory waved everywhere on the lawn and from the verandahs, and bowls of roses completed the interior decorations.

On Flag Day the children of the Daughters are invited to participate and a specially pleasing feature of the afternoon's program was the introduction of the children in prettily drills and recitations.

As the guests arrived the children pinned on flags, kindly presented by the Elks, and seated them on the lawn in front of the rear verandah, converted into a stage for the afternoon's performance.

The Regent, Mrs. Frank M. Kennedy, conducted short business session before the D. A. R. chorus, directed by Mrs. Eliza Waddell, sang "America" as the opening number.

Mrs. Kennedy gave a short and instructive talk on "The deplorable ignorance of the People in regard to the laws concerning the national flag," and Mrs. W. B. Woodward, chairman of the Department of Patriotic Education, read the state laws concerning the desecration of the flag.

The story of the flag was given by Helen Durant and Mrs. Kennedy, as Regent, gave a most interesting talk on Ohio and her flag, illustrated by an excellent drawing.

The remainder of the program was given by the children.

Taking part in a cunning flag drill of tiny tots were Wilhelmina Sprenger, Jean Michaels, Helen Louise Jackson, Francis Marion Kennedy, Thomas Craig, Robert Parrett. Five little girls, Elizabeth Sprenger, Mary and Jane Durant, Dorothy Parrett, Mildred Todhunter, sang the "Flag Song" splendidly and two small boys, Thomas Craig and Robert Parrett, were very cute in a recitation, "Our Flag." Francis Marion Kennedy told of "Flag Day" with stirring patriotism that delighted the guests and Dorothy Parrett recited prettily, "Ballad of the Sweet Pea." Billy McFadden gave a bright little recitation.

The program closed with a beautiful flag drill by twelve girls, with Francis Marion Kennedy carrying a huge flag as advance guard.

The girls in the drill were: Mary and Jane Durant, Elizabeth Sprenger, Mildred Todhunter, Mary Elizabeth Brown, Ruth Tanquary, Mary Brownell, Portia Brownell, Anna Lee McFadden, Roma Brownell, Ruth Jamison, Elizabeth Brownell.

As it was "children's day," the Daughters departed from the usual and served ice cream cones in bountiful supply, to the special approval of the small guests.

Miss Pauline Pine trained the children in the drills and Miss Helen Jones played the accompaniments.

Mrs. Emmit McLean, of Greenfield, Miss. Helen Hoskins of Columbus, and Mrs. Simmons, a Chapter member from Greenfield, were out of town guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rothrock have received the announcement of the marriage of their son, Mr. Vernon Rothrock, and Miss Lenora Broadway Becker at the home of the bride in Toledo, on the second of June.

Mr. Rothrock brings his bride to the home of his parents in this city Friday for a visit and will find awaiting him the best wishes of his many Washington friends.

For some time Mr. Rothrock has been traveling salesman with the large wholesale grocery firm of Berdan & Company, of Toledo, making headquarters in Dayton, where the home of the young couple will probably be made.

Twenty couples of the younger set were very pleasantly entertained at the Frank M. Fullerton home last night with an informal reception, given by Miss Dorothy Fullerton in compliment to her house guests, three attractive Wells College friends, Miss Charlotte Flindt, of Spencer, Iowa; Miss Dorothy Land of Richmond, Ind., and Miss Esther Dahl of Duluth, Minn.

The home was a beautiful bower of June roses and greenery.

The originality of the hostess was shown in her plans for the entertainment of the guests. Professor Thomas, of Kansas City, Mo., located at present in the city and a complete master of the art of palmistry, gave several demonstrations of his wonderful mind reading and this powers of suggestion, after which he read the palms and revealed the futures of all the guests. Other diversions had been provided, but it was hard to tear the guests away from the absorbing interest of the palmist.

A delicious luncheon of chicken salad, nut and patti de foigras sandwiches, mint sherbet and chocolate-covered marshmallows was served, Miss Fullerton's mother, Mrs. Frank M. Fullerton; sister, Miss Margaret, and Mrs. John Galvin of Wilmington, assisting.

The guests were received by Miss Dorothy and her house guests. Miss Fullerton was looking extremely pretty in pale blue and white net; Miss Dahl was attractive in white net embroidered with silver; red satin and chiffon were quite becoming to Miss Flindt, a beautiful blonde; and Miss Land, brunnette type, was charming in black net.

Other out-of-town guests were Miss Mala Manners of Frenchtown, N. J., and Mr. Patterson, of Atlanta, Ga.

Mrs. G. C. Kidner charmingly entertained the Tuesday Kensington club on Thursday afternoon. Summer flowers were in artistic arrangement and tempting refreshments served.

Mrs. A. J. Burgett assisted.

Complimenting Mr. Hugh Kennedy, who leaves in a few days for the East, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Peddicord gave an informal, but thoroughly pleasurable little dinner of six covers Wednesday evening. The additional guests were Misses Helen Jones and Emily Tansey, Mr. Carl Reed.

Miss Vada Brakefield delightfully entertained the young ladies' class of the Staunton M. E. Sunday school with a Kensington, Thursday afternoon.

Quantities of summer flowers adorned the hospitable summer home and a refreshing summer luncheon served.

A jolly party picnicking at Rock Mills Thursday was composed of Miss Dorothy Fullerton and guests Misses Esther Dahl of Duluth, Minn., Miss Dorothy Land of Richmond, Ind., Miss Charlotte Flindt of Spencer, Iowa, Miss Lillian Davis and guest Miss Mala Manners of Frenchtown, N. J.; Messrs. Chas. Clough and Madruder of Columbus, Messrs. Kenneth Kerr of Wilmington, Edwards Hopkins, Virgil Perrill and Patterson.

The June meeting of the Home Missionary Society of Grace church was held in the parlors of the church Wednesday afternoon, with the afternoon's hostesses Mesdames J. W. Hughey, Stuckey, Noble, Girard, James Hays, Tyson, Misses Light and Edith Gardner.

The annual election of officers was held, resulting as follows:

President, Mrs. H. W. Wills; 1st Vice President, Mrs. W. E. Ireland; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. F. G. Carpenter; 3rd Vice President, Mrs. S. J. Sollars; Treasurer, Mrs. Wm. Dial; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Lucy Hays; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Wm. McClain; Secretary of Literature, Mrs. Frank Christopher; Secretary of Mite Boxes, Mrs. Wert Briggs.

Mrs. W. E. Ireland gave a reading and Miss Gardner favored the society with a vocal solo, after which the guests were invited to the basement dining room for refreshments and an enjoyable social hour.

Never was a social event carried out to more successful completion than that of the social session of the Rebekahs held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Riley and daughter Miss Luella, Wednesday evening.

By the untiring efforts of the committee nothing had been left undone to complete the evening's entertainment. The beautiful lawn and scenery thrown into relief by electric lights, created picturesque surroundings.

At seven o'clock autos began to arrive and soon everyone was enjoying the old time see-saw, swings, and croquet, and the Edison phonograph furnished sweet music throughout the evening.

Delicious refreshments were served consisting of strawberry shortcake and whipped cream, after which guests were invited to the punch bowl to quench their thirst.

About 125 Rebekahs were present all expressing their intention to be Rebekahs at least another year and regretting to leave the evening's entertainment.

The platform at the B. & O. station was again showered with rice this morning when Mr. and Mrs.

Roland Allen (nee Miss Emily Fullerton) of Greenfield left on the 10:42 B. & O. train for Columbus.

The wedding took place at 8 a. m. at the bride's home in Greenfield and the young couple made a flying trip by automobile to this city, followed by a score of their immediate friends who did their best to make life miserable for the otherwise happy pair until their train arrived.

The bride and bride-groom are both well known in Washington. Among the bridal party were the Misses Laura Douglas, Irma Oxley, Amelia Ashling and Messrs. Slagle, Everhart and Howard Allen who have many friends in this city.

The Charlotte Tuttle Bible class thoroughly enjoyed the semi-monthly meeting of Wednesday evening with Mrs. Tuttle.

A feature which added novelty and pleasure was a birthday surprise tendered to Mrs. Regina Staubus, of the class. A beautiful birthday cake with pink candles was brought in and while a dainty summer collation was enjoyed Mrs. Staubus taken completely by surprise, was merrily toasted.

Candidate Hughes Described as the "Political Representative of Pro-German Influence" in a Plan to Insert in the Platform—Developments of the Day.

St. Louis, June 15.—An influential element in the Democratic party is determined, if possible, to procure the adoption of a declaration in the Democratic platform describing Charles E. Hughes, the Republican nominee, as the political representative of pro-German influence in the United States. Those who would have Mr. Hughes so attacked are Senator Williams of Mississippi, Senator Husting of Wisconsin and Representative Glass of Virginia, all leaders of prominence in party affairs in Washington. It is known that the president is opposed to any direct personal attack of this character upon Mr. Hughes. He is likewise opposed to any declaration criticising the Republicans for having nominated a justice of the supreme court. Senator Stone of Missouri, chairman of the resolutions committee, is still insistent that the Democrats shall make some reference to the Republicans in "soiling the ermine" for political purposes. However, Mr. Stone, who has

BIG OLLIE DISCUSSES THE ISSUE

Made Permanent Chairman of Convention.

HAS PRAISE FOR WILSON

Underwood Tariff Act, the Federal Reserve Law and the Foreign and Domestic Policies of the Administration Are Upheld in the Address of the Kentucky Senator Before the Democratic Convention.

St. Louis, June 15.—There was a big crowd on hand to witness the proceedings of the second session of the Democratic national convention which met in the Coliseum at noon today.

Temporary Chairman Glynn called the convention to order and Rev. J. J. Glennon, archbishop of St. Louis, offered prayer.

The first business before the delegates was the hearing of the several convention committee reports. The committee on permanent organization, in its report, presented the name of Senator Ollie M. James of Kentucky as permanent chairman of the convention. This report was adopted unanimously. Temporary Chairman Glynn then introduced Mr. James, who was accorded a flattering ovation. He responded by delivering an extended speech, in which he extolled the achievements of the Democratic administration. Reports of other committees were adopted without debate.

In his address as permanent chairman, Senator James praised the present administration for its "matchless record of promises kept and for freeing the senate from the control of the great interests by making it elective by the people at the polls and for driving invisible government, the lobby, out of Washington." He declared the party was proud of its achievement in writing into law the present Underwood-Simmons tariff bill. "Not a schedule in it fosters a monopoly; not a rate in it protects a trust," he said. "One of the greatest features of the tariff law," he added, "is the income tax, which raises from the fortunes of the rich, the prosperous, the well-to-do people of the nation, $120,000,000 per annum and lifts this burden off the tables and backs of the poor."

Doesn't Fear Competition.

Mr. James said he did not fear foreign competition here after the war. America is going to take the markets of the world, he asserted. With freight rates and cost of transportation in our favor, we have nothing to fear, declared the speaker.

The chairman declared that the federal reserve law had emancipated the credit of the nation. Panics no longer are possible, he said.

Discussing preparedness, he declared that democracy believes in preparedness without militarism. During this administration, he stated, more has been done to build up an army and navy in three years than the Republican party did in forty years of its existence. Self-defense and preparation for it is necessary, he declared.

Discussing international problems, Mr. James highly praised the administration's policy toward war torn Europe, and said in reference to the Lusitania incident that our president, "patient, patriotic, farsighted, the real statesman, handled this question with the greatest ability and won for America its greatest diplomatic victory."

Referring to the Mexican situation, Mr. James said President Wilson has handled it ably and that "his policy has been the same as that of Abraham Lincoln under like conditions more than half a century ago." He added: "When American soil was invaded the president quickly ordered the United States troops into Mexico upon their punitive expedition. They are there now and, I have no doubt, will remain as long as there is possibility of the capture and punishment of the murderers who invaded American soil or are needed for the protection of American lives along the border."

Mr. James then attacked the Republican platform and its attitude on the ship subsidy question, criticised severely the Republican attitude on the rural credits and anti-trust propositions and closed with a glowing eulogy of President Wilson.

THURBER FOR HUGHES

Columbus, June 15.—Charles E. Thurber, former secretary of the Progressive state executive committee, said he will support Charles E. Hughes, presidential nominee, and the entire Republican ticket, this year.

LABOR LEADERS GIVEN HEARING

Committee on Resolutions Holds Public Meeting.

St. Louis, June 15.—As usual the actual work of drafting the platform will be done by a subcommittee of seven members, which will include Senator William J. Stone as chairman of the full resolutions committee. This subcommittee will not be named until after the public hearings have been finished.

Secretary Baker had talks with some of the members of the resolutions committee just before they assembled. None of them has seen the Wilson platform draft which he has in his possession. The president's suggestions are to be laid first before the subcommittee. On motion of Senator Pomerene of Ohio it was decided to limit the time for discussion of a subject to thirty minutes as a maximum.

Samuel Gompers and his committee of labor leaders appeared and read the same statement they made to the Republicans and Bull Moosers in Chicago, after which Mr. Gompers addressed the committee, becoming quite impassioned as he asked the Democratic party to ally itself with labor this fall. The labor people want, among other things, a declaration in favor of a vigorous enforcement of the seaman's act, restriction of immigration, a national workingmen's compensation act, women suffrage and the extension of the eight hour law.

Mr. James then attacked the Republican platform and its attitude on the ship subsidy question, criticised severely the Republican attitude on the rural credits and anti-trust propositions and closed with a glowing eulogy of President Wilson.

When the questions of peace and preparedness came up a lot of speakers presented themselves.

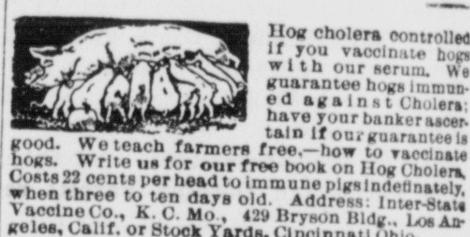

Rev. Herbert Bigelow, Herbert J. Friedmann and Miss Crystal Estaman, representing the American Union Against Militarism, asked that the party take a strong stand against preparedness, which Mr. Friedmann called "a brainstorm."

COW CHARGES ON BABY.

Annoyed Because Child Was Wrapped In Red Blanket.

Philadelphia.—Mrs. Barbara Stoney went to Packington with her two small children. The baby was covered with a red blanket and was asleep in the carriage when an enraged cow, bellowing madly, charged.

Mrs. Stoney ran and the cow pursued her. The mother succeeded in getting the baby out of the carriage but was knocked against the fence and badly bruised before a crowd of men came and drove the cow away.

"Why Swear, Dear? Use 'Gets-It' for Corns!"

It's the New Plan. Simple. Sure as Fate. Applied in a Few Seconds.

"Why, John, I never knew you to use such language! I've told you several times it's no use to try those bandages, salves, tapes, plasters, and contraptions for corns. Here's some 'Gets-It.' It's just wonderful how easy, 'clear and clean' it makes any corn come right off. Take but a few seconds to apply. It dries at once. Put your sock on right over it—there's nothing to stick or roll up, form a bubble of your toe, or press on the corn. It's painless, simple as rolling off a log. Now put away those knives, razors and scissors; use 'Gets-It' and you'll have a sweet disposition and no more corns and calluses."

"For You Wouldn't Lose Your Temper, John, If You Used 'Gets-It' for Those Corns!"

Sold in Washington C. H., and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Browns', Christophers' and Blackmer & Tanquary's Drug Stores.

RELICS HERE FROM WORLD'S GREATEST BATTLE

The fighting around Verdun, France, has been the severest in history. Relics of the battle have been put on exhibition at the allied bazaar in New York. Here is a wreck of a German aeroplane brought down by French fire, and in the background is a French gun from which the whole top was shot off by a German shell.

Petrograd Reports Progress In Bukowina.

ARMY NEARING CAPITAL

Terrific Drive Also Launched Against Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's Lines to the North—Number of Prisoners Taken by Russians Placed at 120,000—Germans Successful Near Verdun.

London, June 15.—The armies of General Brusiloff have made progress during the past twenty-four hours along a 250 mile front, despite the fact that, according to Petrograd's admission, the Austro-German resistance has become extremely stubborn.

A furious battle is raging for the possession of the bridgehead of Czernowitz, the Bukowina capital. The Russian war office announced the capture of the city of Salatyn, twenty miles to the northwest of Czernowitz. Vienna admitted the appearance of Russian cavalry there.

The occupation of the city by infantry forces renders the defense of Czernowitz extremely perilous, as the Russians are now in a position to sweep southward and cut off the defenders of the Bukowina capital, should they insist on holding out to the last.

Six thousand men and twenty officers were added to the number of prisoners taken since the offensive began. The total number now is reported to be 121,720, including 1,720 officers.

The first massed attack against Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's lines since the offensive in the south began was delivered Wednesday north of Baronovitchi. The attack was repeated six or seven times, but, according to both the German and Austrian official reports, each broke down under the Teuton fire with serious losses to the attackers, who, in the retreat, were placed under the shell fire of their own artillery.

These attacks marked the initiation, it is believed, of a general Russian offensive in the north, aimed at crushing in the Teuton front to remove the danger of a general flanking movement against General Brusiloff's army.

Further progress in the region of the Thiaumont farm, on the east bank of the Meuse river, in the Verdun region, is announced in the official statement issued by the German war office.

The statement also announced the loss of a part of the positions recently taken from the British southeast of Zillebeke, in the Ypres sector.

Brain of Dr. William J. White, late professor emeritus of the University of Pennsylvania, weighed six ounces more than the average, according to a statement of expert anatomists.

George Shively of South Bend, Indiana, son of the late Senator Shively, has been awarded for Indiana the conference medal for the best all-round student in athletics and scholarship during his four years at Indiana university.

Two automobile bandits shot Herman Malow, a motorcycle policeman, to death and seriously wounded his companion, Policeman Thure Linde, after a spectacular holdup in a Chicago suburb. The bandits escaped with $2,200.

METHODISTS AND Y IN A TIE GAME

The Y. M. C. A. nine held the Methodists to a tie score in a hard fought game on the Athletic diamond Wednesday. They seemed to have victory cinched until the third inning, when the heavy hitting of Wilson and Johnson for the Methodists tied up the score.
